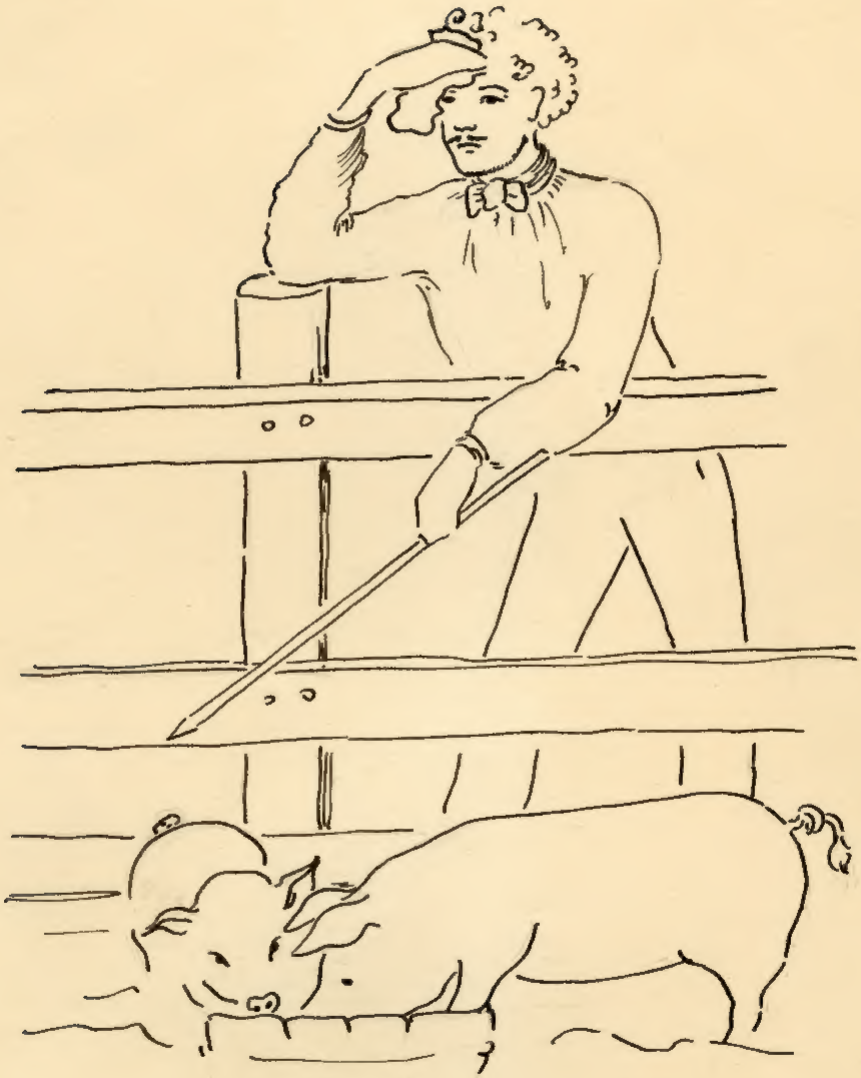
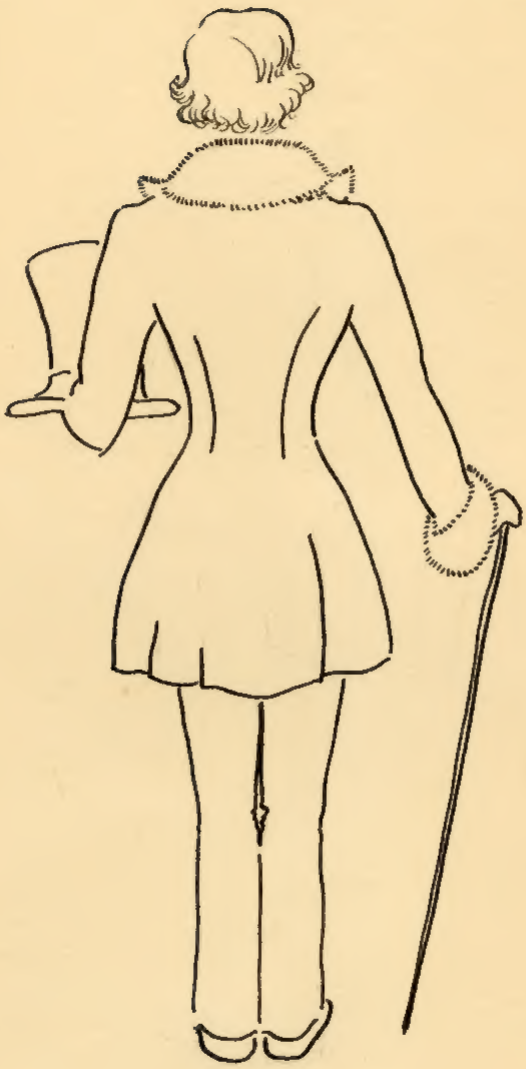
All chimneys have to be cleaned.
All chimney-sweeps must be licensed

Street lamps were lit between the third night after and fifth night before each full moon, also when the weather was thick.

Among the duties of the policeman was that of enforcing the ordinance against throwing clam shells into Broad Street.



The poundmaster rests after driving the runaway pigs out of Broad Street.



The official doorKeeper's salary was not decided until he had a real official door to "Keep" for the Common Council.

Speed limit for horses - 8 miles per hour. Penalty - five dollars fine.